PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

It is difficult to believe that summer is coming to an end. The good news is I'm looking forward to seeing all of you in September. Our program will be invigorating, offering a variety of information that we trust will stimulate our members into action. The November election is sooner than we think, and our Republican candidate Donald Trump needs all of our support to win. Please join us on September 8th and rally around a triumphant election for the Republican Party.

We do have plans for making calls and pounding the pavement. Stayed tuned in to learn more about where you can HELP.

See you in September!

September Program

Victoria Wilson

1st VP PROGRAM

WHY TRUMP? PANEL with Q&A:

So many misconceptions about our Republican Candidate for President, Donald J. Trump, are being repeated—shamefully, even by a few of the so called “respected” Republican leaders. This is everything Ronald Reagan was against; remember his 11th Commandment, “Thou shalt not speak ill of any fellow Republicans”.

Our September meeting will feature a panel speaking on various aspects of Mr. Trump's platforms, and will be contrasted with “hers”.

CELESTE GREIG, our very own WHRWF member, was a California Delegate for Trump at the RNC CONVENTION. She will fill us in on the highlights, sights, sounds and excitement she experienced.

SCOTT BAIO, Actor, Director “If I can get my country back to where I think it can be and my career suffers, I win.” Scott Baio has personally spent one on one time with Mr. Trump and was asked, and did, speak at the RNC Convention, He will tell us his views on Trump's CHARACTER.

COLONEL KENNETH S. COLLINS, Sr., USAF (Ret), Colonel Collins has been closely following the MILITARY (deployments, vets, Isis infiltration, and the disgraceful weakening of our military). Ken will explain to us what Trump is proposing for our Military and the security of the United States.

BILLY A. ROBBINS, Intellectual Property Attorney, will enlighten us on what Mr. Trump will do and what horrors Hillary will do to the SUPREME COURT if elected. The constitution of the United States is in peril.

RON VILLIA, a Hispanic small business owner, will inform us on citizen's IMMIGRATION concerns and guide us on how to engage and promote all Americans to register and vote Republican.

PHIL WILSON, Investment Analysis Specialist, JOB SECURITY, TAX REFORM Phil will educate and contrast a few of the differences between the candidate's platforms for the economy and taxes.

BRING YOUR QUESTIONS!

The month our 2016 membership drive ends

Our final 2016 membership report to our state organization (CFRW) is due October 1, 2016. That means only one month for our un-renewed members to keep their membership consecutive, only one month to bring in 15 to 20 new members to match last year’s number, which was an amazing 196 members, and for which we won almost all the CFRW awards available. As of the end of August, we have 173 members. Still strong, but can we match 2015?

Included in the 173 is one renewal (Gretchen Martin) and one new member Maryam Javadi, referred to us by new member Mercy Alpert. Thank you all, and Welcome, Maryam.

This is urgent: Please bring a guest to the September meeting and encourage her to join that very day. She will then be a part of the great WHRWF team which is fighting to elect the one candidate who can save the country: Donald Trump*. I am counting on YOU.

* NEVER HILLARY or a THIRD PARTY CANDIDATE if you love your Country, the constitution, and reject socialism.

Election Integrity Project

Connie Currin

3rd VP CAMPAIGN/PRECINCT

SIGN UP Sept. 8th meeting!! Class September 15th, 9 AM—12 PM at the home of Victoria Wilson. Fee to Election Integrity Project is $20.00 per person, which includes the class, instruction materials, coffee and donuts. Hear the statistical evidence of voter fraud in the past that has cost many of our candidates their elections. Learn what you can do as a citizen to help protect our most important right- to elect our chosen candidates fairly and honestly. This is an eye opening event not to be missed.

ELECTION INTEGRITY PROJECT

California Election Integrity Project is a group of citizen volunteers seeking to fulfill our responsibility to actively participate in our Republic and ensure the integrity of the process that protects our freedoms and our way of life. We seek to protect government of, by, and for the people by maintaining an active role in the part of government that empowers us with our most basic right – the right to choose our representatives by vote.

RUTH WEISS is ELECTON INTEGRATY PROGRAM’s Director of Education and Training, as well as the San Diego County Coordinator.

September Vendors

4th VP WAYS & MEANS

Hope you are all having a great summer vacation. Looking ahead to our September meeting we have a new vendor. Her name is Sylvia Woolhouse and her business is called Urban Swank Jewelry. She has beautiful hand crafted jewelry designed by Sylvia. She is a strong Republican and looking forward to joining our club.

We also have a returning vendor Sheryl Scarso who has handmade scented candles. Her business is called Makescents Candles.

It’s not too soon to start your holiday shopping. Be sure to see what these ladies have for us.

Scholarship JUANITA ROBBINS

The Executive Board is recommending that we change the value of our scholarships to a yearly total amount of $5,000. This issue will be placed before the general membership and I am requesting that each of you give this serious favorable consideration. As chairman of the Scholarship Committee, if this amount is approved, I will recommend that the 1st place award be upped to $3,500 and the 2nd place award upped at $1,500. If this increase is approved, the committee will nonetheless continue to hold special fund raising events and to gratefully accept individual donations, thus reducing the amount of money coming from the club's general fund to meet the $5,000 allocation.

As you all know, I firmly believe the scholarship program is extremely important, not just to the growth of the Republican Party, but also to the renewal of awareness and belief in the basic ideals set forth in the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. Over the last three years we've reached about 2 dozen young students (and eventual voters.) While that number isn't as big as we would like, I believe raising the value of the scholarships will increase interest in participation.

Our Scholarship program is the most important means we have of reaching out beyond our own already committed Republicans. It's our opportunity to build awareness of our club in the community and to create real interest in Republican ideals among our young people. I sincerely hope you will consider supporting this recommendation and in any event I do most sincerely appreciate your past support of this program.

Thank you.

WHY WOULD ANYONE VOTE FOR TRUMP?

I am a Trump supporter for several reasons. I believe that our country is at a critical tipping point and we don't have another presidential term to figure this out.

Health care costs are out of control, our labor participation rate is at a 50 year low, we have no borders, jobs are leaving by the thousands, the debt service on our national debt is nearing a point we cannot pay it.

The average person hasn't had an increase in pay in 12 years. Over half the black men in our country are out of work. We are more divided than I can ever remember and I'm over 60 years old. We are at the brink of losing our country.

On top of that we spend money we don't have, fighting wars we shouldn't be in and cannot win. We pay over a hundred other countries billions of dollars a year and our military are the policemen for the world. We must fix this mess ASAP.

Now, before I give you my reasons, I need to share my perspective. I am an evangelical Christian but I don't believe it is the role of government to legislate morality. I am a service connected disabled veteran having served in the US Army as a paratrooper. I've written 14 books, thousands of trade articles and have trained over 1,000,000 real estate agents in specific professional skills. I've employed over a thousand people during that time, and until a month ago have been a registered democrat. Here are my reasons:

First, his resume. Of everyone running for president, Trump is the only one who has ever employed anyone. He is the only one who has any experience in international trade. He is the only one who understands the impact of our tax laws and government regulation on companies and jobs. He's worked complicated deals all over the world, negotiating with governments, labor unions, and international financiers.

Second is his character. His children are pretty awesome. You can tell a lot about somebody by their kids. He is brutally honest as opposed to being politically correct. His employees and his ex-employees have nothing but praise for him.

Third, is his success. He has built hundreds of successful businesses. One of his companies declared bankruptcy (chapter 11 or reorganization) four separate times before ultimately saving the company. All creditors were paid and jobs were saved.

Fourth is that he is a great negotiator. In fact, he wrote the book on negotiation -- The Art of the Deal, an international best-seller. If we are to save this country we need someone who can work with people of differing opinions. Congress is grid locked. We need to work new trade agreements with other nations. We need to renegotiate treaties.

Fifth, Trump is a nationalist and not a globalist. He believes that our country comes first. We need to enforce our borders and the rule of law. He believes it is not our job to defend the whole world. He believes that if we do help countries with their defense, we should be paid for it.

Sixth, he has great instincts. He predicted the rise of Osama bin Laden. He predicted a terror attack on a major US city. He opposed the war in Iraq although his opponent was in favor of the war. He opposed it because it would destabilize the middle east. Seventh, he is a natural leader. He has single-handedly set the agenda for this election cycle. He is respected internationally as well as in our nation.

Eighth, he is a great communicator and persuader. He is a master at using the media to advance his narrative. He totally understands the media. These are skills he will need if he is to turn this country around.

Ninth, I have studied him. I read his first book in 1987 and realized he was a brilliant businessman. I've watched hundreds of hours of speeches, media interviews, read thousands of articles about him, several of his books, and studied his successes and his failures. He is the real deal. I challenge anyone to study him and not support him.

Finally, I have to look at what motivates him. Most politicians are motivated by money and/or power. Trump already has both. He has a history of being a patriot, from his military high school, to now. He has a huge ego, like every other candidate running. The difference is he is honest about his.

I think he sees our nation at a critical place and he knows that he has the unique skill set to fix the problems. If he does, he will go down in history as being one of the greatest presidents ever.

If you understand him, you know that his legacy is important to him. I even believe he is funding his own campaign so he won't owe favors or loyalties to special interests. When you evaluate his motivations you can't help but admire him.

One more reason, - the establishment Republican party hates him and has actually been actively trying to take down their own front runner. The establishment Democrat party hates him because they know he will crush Hillary in the election, and the establishment media hates him because he totally controls the news cycle and they cannot control him. Even the donor class hates him because he cannot be bought. If all these people who I cannot stand hate him, that only makes me love him more. You know who loves him? The regular people in this country. The ones who work their asses off every day and haven't had a pay raise in over a decade. The ones who pay the taxes and watch as their jobs get shipped overseas or across the border. The ones who see their property values going down because corrupt Big Banking blew up the housing market. The ones whose retirement is in jeopardy because social security has been raided and their 401ks have been decimated by corrupt Wall Street.

Think about this: We've had politicians running our country for way too many years and look at the results. Isn't it time we give a business person the opportunity to show the way a country should be run.....like a business, because that's what our country is!

(article submitted by Nancy Eisenhart)

I have a PERSONAL message for the Muslim father whose son was killed in Iraq

By Allen West 4:34pm July 31, 2016

Everyone's talking about the speech delivered by Mr. Khizr Khan, accompanied by his wife Ghazala at the DNC that focused on the loss of his son, U.S. Army Captain Humayan Khan.

It appears things have devolved into such a level of immaturity relating to the speech that I believe there's a need for a clear analysis of Mr. Khan's address, and what he should have presented.

First, let me offer my condolences to the Khan family for their sacrifice, as they are now an American Gold Star Family. Their son and I share an unbreakable bond. We both served our nation and, along with three other generations in my family, took the oath to support and defend our Constitution and served in combat zones.

Yes sir, Mr. Khan, I've read our Constitution and firmly recognize the preeminent responsibility of our federal government is to "provide for the common defense." I also comprehend the relationship between the three branches of government...you know separation of powers, checks and balances, coequal branches of government.

I would offer a simple recommendation to Mr. Khan. Perhaps you should have asked President Barack Obama if he had read the Constitution — undoubtedly you would agree we have witnessed a few unconstitutional actions from him.

And while you were at it, Mr. Khan, perhaps you could have asked Hillary Clinton about handling classified information — since I'm quite sure your son, Captain Khan, had at a minimum a secret clearance.

I don't think your son would have been able to, well, have his "careless" mishandling of classified materials and information simply excused. Perhaps Mr. Khan, you could have addressed the necessity for high standards of honor, integrity, and character in a commander in chief.

Also, I found it interesting Mr. Khan, that you and your wife, an American Gold Star family, would take the stage to support a sitting president and one desiring to be president, who had abandoned Americans in a combat zone and lied about it.

I tend to believe that if alive, your son would consider that type of behavior abhorrent and deplorable. Or perhaps, as it seems, your speech was politically driven, and not based on principle? After all, you did take the stage before a crowd that disrespected a Medal of Honor recipient...is that cool with you?

You see, I understand Mr. Khan, that your son and your family are Muslim and Muslims do indeed serve in our armed forces. But in the military I know, we do not celebrate that which divides, but rather that which unites. And what is it that unites us as Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen, and Marines? It is service above self, commitment to something greater than the individual, and sacrifice for our country and comrades in arms.

Now, let's be honest Mr. Khan, those of us with knowledge could just as easily bring attention to SGT Hasan Karim Akbar and Major Nidal Hasan, both Muslims serving in the U.S. Army. Just as you celebrated your Muslim son's sacrifice, there are others who could give testimony to their loss due to those Muslim soldiers — and I use lower case reference to them (soldiers) because they dishonored the oath and were traitors to our Code of Honor. Your son was not, but that had nothing to do with him being a Muslim: he was an American Soldier.

So, Mr. Khan, since you had such an immense stage, what should you have addressed? You should have taken the time to explain how humbled and thankful you are to live in America. You should have mentioned how honored your son was and the pride you felt knowing he was serving your adopted country. You should have explained to America, and the world, what killed your son...the ideology of Islamism, Islamic fascism.

You could have told all of us why it needed to be defeated and that we need a commander in chief who would not abandon Americans in combat, but ensure they were supported in order to defeat this scourge.

Mr. Khan, you could have taken these words spoken by a proven courageous and resilient leader, Sir Winston Churchill, who has a U.S. Naval vessel named after him, and expounded upon them:

"How dreadful are the curses which Mohammedanism lays on its votaries! Besides the fanatical frenzy, which is as dangerous in a man as hydrophobia in a dog, there is this fearful fatalistic apathy. The effects are apparent in many countries, improvident habits, slovenly systems of agriculture, sluggish methods of commerce, and insecurity of property exist wherever the followers of the Prophet rule or live. A degraded sensualism deprives this life of its grace and refinement, the next of its dignity and sanctity. The fact that in Mohammedan law every woman must belong to some man as his absolute property, either as a child, a wife, or a concubine, must delay the final extinction of slavery until the faith of Islam has ceased to be a great power among men. Individual Muslims may show splendid qualities, but the influence of the religion paralyses the social development of those who follow it. No stronger retrograde force exists in the world. Far from being moribund, Mohammedanism is a militant and proselytizing faith. It has already spread throughout Central Africa, raising fearless warriors at every step; and were it not that Christianity is sheltered in the strong arms of science, the science against which it had vainly struggled, the civilization of modern Europe might fall, as fell the civilization of ancient Rome."

And now we can all understand why Barack Obama had Churchill's bust removed from the Oval Office. Those were the insightful, prescient, and relevant words of Sir Winston Churchill from the first edition of his book, The River War. Mr. Khan, this is what you should have addressed; it would have been so very well received. You could have told the world and defined the enemy that killed your son...instead my assessment is that you will be remembered as a political pawn.

You could have taken the time to explain the words written by Thomas Jefferson and John Adams, dated March 28, 1786, to U.S. Minister of Foreign Affairs John Jay, reporting on their meeting with the Ambassador of Tripoli: "We [Adams & Jefferson] took the liberty to make some enquiries concerning the ground of their pretensions to make war upon nations who had done them no injury, and observed that we considered all mankind as our friends who had done us no wrong, nor had given us any provocation. [Note they clarify "nations who have done them [i.e. Muslim Barbary States] no injury"] The Ambassador answered us that it was founded on the laws of their prophet [i.e. Mohammed]; that it was written in their Koran; that all nations who should not have acknowledged their authority were sinners; that it was their right and duty to make war upon them wherever they could be found, and to make slaves of all they could take as prisoners; and that every Mussulman [Muslims] who was slain in battle was sure to go to Paradise."

Mr. Khan, you had a moment to speak on history and provide us clarity and truth from a Muslim man who lost his son, an American Soldier, to Islamists. You could have clarified the difference between your son and SGT Hasan Karim Akbar and Major Nidal Hasan. That sir, to me, was a missed opportunity.

Then again, maybe you had no intention of using the platform provided to you as a teachable moment...but rather a politically-influenced opportunity for gain. You, Mr. Khan, had the chance to be the face and voice of a Muslim family that stood with the fundamental principles and values of liberty, freedom, and democracy upon which this Republic was founded — in which you have found a home.

You could have articulated how a 7th century savage and barbaric ideology inspired by a murderous warlord, psychopath, and, by modern day standards, a pedophile, was not a radical but the leader of a militant phase of Islam introduced after the 622 AD event referred to as Al Hijra.

Mr. Khan, I grieve for the loss of your son. However, I grieve even more that you used his sacrifice and loss as nothing more than a damn politicized stunt. May God forgive you for it.

Legislation

November Ballot Measures

The California Federation of Republican Women will be making recommendations on the November Ballot propositions. There are 17 propositions on the ballot! Currently our Advocate and our Ballot Measures Analysts are busy preparing analysis and recommendations for our Voting Body to take official positions on each measure. Our CFRW Voting Body is made up of the

CFRW President, the three CFRW Division Presidents, and the three CFRW Vice Presidents. Once we have our official recommendations, we will post online as well as have in-depth analysis and talking points on each proposition in the Capitol Update. Thank you for being patient, as we want to make sure we take the most informed recommendation we can! With 17 ballot measures, it is imperative the CFRW members understand what they are voting on so that they can, in turn, educate the voters

The Legislature will have until August 31st to debate the merits of the bills that have survived until this point and either send them to Governor Brown or kill them on the floor. There are several bills worth noting awaiting their fate today in Appropriations. Here are a few:

- AB 385 (Chu, D): This bill would abolish Daylight Savings Time in California. How would this affect you? What do you think?
- AB 1561 (Change, R): This bill would repeal the sales taxes levied on feminine hygiene products.
- AB 1066 (Gonzales, D): This bill would give mandatory overtime pay to farm workers. A similar bill was defeated earlier this year, but thanks to the Gut and Amend process, it has been resurrected
- SB 32 (Pavely, D): This bill would extend mandatory emissions targets to past 2020, thereby allowing a loophole for cap and trade to also be extended.
- SB 1387 (deLeon, D): This bill would give the Legislature appointment power of three more positions on the South Coast Air Quality Management District. This is a transparent power grab by the Democrats in the legislature where local control should be more prevalent.

High Speed Fail

Once again, we are hearing that High Speed Rail is behind schedule, over budget, and on our last nerve. In a scathing Los Angeles Times article, it is reported that the relocation of Highway 99 in Fresno, integral in being able to lay the bullet train track, is 15% over budget and running 6 months behind schedule for only a 2.5 mile section of freeway. This small project, in scope of the entire proposed railway, will be requesting an additional $35 million in state funding from the original $226 million. The High Speed Rail juggernaut has ballooned to $64 billion currently, up from the $40 billion voters originally passed in 2008. With each passing day this project is looking to never be finished, instead creating a series of local rail investments when the line is never connected or completed. When is enough, enough?

How to create a Socialist State, by Saul Alinsky:

There are eight levels of control that must be obtained before you are able to create a Socialist State. The first is the most important.

- 1) Healthcare --- Control healthcare and you control the people.
- 2) Poverty --- Increase the poverty level as high as possible. Poor people are easier to control and will not fight back if you are providing everything for them to live.
- 3) Debt --- Increase the debt to an unsustainable level... that way you are able to increase taxes, and this will produce more poverty.
- 4) Gun Control --- Remove the ability for citizens to defend themselves from the Government. That way you are able to create a Police State.
- 5) Welfare --- Take control of every aspect of people's lives... (Food, Housing and Income).
- 6) Education --- Take control of what people read and what people listen to – take control of what children learn in school.

7) Religion --- Remove the belief in God from schools and the government.

8) Class Warfare --- Divide the people into the wealthy and the poor. This will cause more discontent, and it will be easier to take (Tax) the wealthy with the support of the poor.

Hillary revered Alinsky, proven by her college thesis on him,

"We're going to take things away from you on behalf of the common good."

– Hillary Clinton

and Obama wrote about him in his books. Alinsky's books: Rules for Radicals (dedicated to Lucifer); Reveille for Radicals

The Radicals are winning every level. We must win this election!

REPORT ON ‘ELECTION CENTRAL’ BOOTH AT CONCERTS ON THE GREEN, SUMMER 2016

By Nancy Eisenhart and Linda Phipps

To say the WHRWF Election Central Booth on Sunday Summer Nights at the Warner Park was a success is a vast understatement. It seemed to us our booth – except for the beer concession – was the busiest of all vendors. THANKS to our wonderful club for supporting it, and thanks especially to these hard-working volunteers:

Our president Linda Phipps, Betty Breneman, Celeste Greig (in charge of most Trump material) and her friend Andy Reeder, Wendy Hall (had Trump buttons made locally), Pat Helem, Pamela Ambrovici and her friend Anna Turloc, Cheryl Sullivan and Pat Hicks and another member of Canoga Park West Hills RWF, Debbie and Peter Ruiz (and little grandson Jake “Twump, Twump”), Denise Richardson, Victoria Castillo, Karen Lampert, new member Maryam Javadi who speaks Farsi, and Bob and Nancy Eisenhart

Here’s what we did: Displayed our great Election Central banner, registered voters, promoted WHRWF membership, gave out Trump signs, gave out Trump buttons (for a donation), had handouts on “Why Anyone Would Want to Vote for Trump) and handed out Constitutions, especially to youngsters.

We talked. And we talked. And talked - to people why Trump is better than Hillary, and listened- to people against Hillary, for Trump, and those who don’t like either.

Thanks to Cheryl Sullivan and CPWHRWF, we were able to borrow their Donald Trump Standup, which was a huge success. Thanks to our sister Club.

Favorite Quote: A little boy, about 9 years old, when given a Constitution book, said in a most sincere and sweet voice, “I am going to take this home and read it in my bed tonight.”

Christine Macintosh is collecting your American flags that are old, torn or worn out and need to be retired with "dignity".

Christine will collect them at all of our general meetings. Thank you

BOOKS

TO DONATE: Please call our librarian, Angie D'Amico, for instructions on where to deliver them.

818-344-1878 or 818-453-39821

They are always appreciated. Thank you.
